BibleWay Publishing's objective is to make Bible lessons available to anyone interested in learning more about God and His will. It is the non-profit Bible ministry of Randolph Dunn.

Lessons can be studied online, in classrooms, by Zoom, downloaded to a digital device, emailed, printed, or used by individuals, groups, or churches in their Bible educational ministry. Using these lessons by copying, downloading, emailing, or printing you agree not to alter, add, or replace the content of any lesson.

BWP recommends that you study your Bible to determine the accuracy of what is stated in these lessons or from any other source. Commentaries and teachings of preachers, ministers, pastors, priests, and rabbis are the authors' understanding and are not equivalent to the inspired Bible.

You should always verify all comments, opinions, and teachings since it is YOUR responsibility to seek, know, and do the will of God.

To check the truth of any teaching, read different Bible translations, consult Bible dictionaries and lexicons to learn the meaning of unfamiliar words or phrases. Be careful accepting dictionary definitions, as word and phrase meanings change over time. Also, multiple Greek words have different meanings that can be translated into one English word which can distort the original meaning.

May you allow God to guide you in your study of His Holy Word, the Bible.

When Should God Be Worship?

By being a living sacrifice, one will worship God at all times and in everything giving thanks, glory and praise to God while looking for ways to:

- a. Assist other children of God and those in need.
- b. Encourage others to live sacrificial lives.
- c. Proclaim the message of forgiveness and salvation; the life, death, burial, resurrection and ascension of Christ.

Christians should not abandon (cease, forsake) being with, edifying or fellowshiping others in Christ, regardless of when or where they assemble. They will be faithful to their Savior, to His Message, to His people and not be ashamed. Paul was not ashamed for he stated "I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation" (Romans 1:16).

Paul also put it this way "Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts [your whole being] on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things [things to satisfy self] for you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory." ... "Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name [authority] of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him" (Colossians 3:1-4 ... 15-17).

The following two examples relate to Jew and Gentile Christians having assembled, neither of which should be considered a command but an action in different locations.

"So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls. And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. ... And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having favor with all the people" (Acts 2:41-47).

"These went on ahead and were waiting for us at Troas, but we sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days we came to them at Troas, where we stayed for seven days. On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread [could mean Lord's Supper, a common meal or both], Paul talked (preached KJV) [Greek word dialegomai meaning to converse, discourse with one, argue, discuss] with them, intending to depart on the next day, and he prolonged his speech until midnight" (Acts 20:5-7).

Worshipping God by serving, teaching, singing, and admonishing is not limited to meeting together on any specific day.
